

New York

BETHPAGE UFSD

2015 Farm to School Census Responses

The responses for this district are shown below. Please note this is self-reported data and may conflict with other data sources.

Participation

Did your district or any schools in your district participate in farm to school activities during the 2013-2014 school year?

- Yes, doing farm to school in 2013-2014 school year

All possible answers

- Yes, doing farm to school in 2013-2014 school year
- No, but started farm to school in 2014-2015 school year
- No, but plan to start farm to school in the future
- No farm to school activities currently and no plans for the future.

Are you participating in the Child and Adult Care food program (CACFP)?

- No

All possible answers

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Local

Please indicate if your district or any schools in your district purchased any of the following foods - IN ANY FORM - from local growers/producers/processors/manufacturers during the 2013-2014 school year or would like to in the future?

- Fruit: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Vegetables: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Fluid milk: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Other dairy: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Meat/poultry: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Eggs: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Seafood: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Plant-based protein items such as beans, seeds, and nuts: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Grains and flour: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Bakery products: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Herbs: Not now, but would like to in the future
- Other food: Not now, but would like to in the future

All possible answers

- Yes
- No
- Not now, but would like to in the future
- I don't know

On average, about how frequently do your district's meals or snacks include at least one locally sourced food item from the categories below?

- Fruit: Never
- Vegetables: Never
- Fluid milk: Never
- Other dairy: Never
- Meat/poultry: Never
- Eggs: Never
- Seafood: Never
- Plant-based protein items such as beans, seeds, and nuts: Never
- Grains and flour: Never
- Bakery products: Never
- Herbs: Never
- Other food: Never

All possible answers

- Daily
- More than weekly
- Weekly
- More than monthly
- Monthly
- Occasionally
- Never

Are any of the following considered to be problems in procuring local products or reasons why your district does not purchase even more local products?

- Hard to find year-round availability of key items
- Hard to coordinate procurement of local with regular procurement
- Local items not available from primary vendors
- Higher prices
- Lack of compliance with your institution's purchasing regulations and policies

All possible answers

- Local producers aren't bidding
- GAP or other food safety requirements
- Lack of compliance with your institution's purchasing regulations and policies
- Lack of availability of processed/precut products
- Hard to find new suppliers/growers or distributors
- Hard to get information about product availability
- Hard to place orders with vendors
- Getting on time deliveries
- Getting product delivered that meets your quality requirements & other specs (i.e., size)
- Having quantity delivered equal to quantity ordered
- Resolving problem deliveries
- Hard to find year-round availability of key items
- Inability to pay farmers according to farmers' needs due to school district payment procedures
- Hard to coordinate procurement of local with regular procurement
- Local items not available from primary vendors
- Vendors for local items don't offer a broad range of products
- Higher prices
- Unstable product prices
- Lack of reliability in delivering ordered items
- Lack of kitchen equipment to process/prepare local foods.

Economic Impacts

Looking forward do you anticipate your local purchases will increase, decrease or stay the same?

- Increase

All possible answers

- Increase
- Decrease
- Stay the same
- Other

Can't find your district?

It's because USDA does not have a record for your school district.